MOST CERTAIN WAY TO END A BAD COLD

Surely Breaks the Most Severe Cold and Ends Grippe Misery in Just a Few Hours.

It is a positive fact that a dose of Pape's Cold Compound, taken every two ours until three consecutive doses are taken, will cure grippe or break up the most severe cold, either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs, and all the disagreeable grippe symptoms leaving after the very first dose. and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat, running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippe.

Take this harmless compound as di-rected, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine, made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end grippe misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects, as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound, which any druggist in the world can supply.

Charming Hair

Every Woman Can Have It by Using Parisan Sage-Guaranteed by the Red Cross Pharmacy.

There is a reason for the pheonomenal sale of Parisian Sage in the United States since it was first introduced into America, and the sales this year are breaking all records.

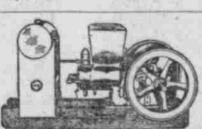

And the reason is plain to all: Parisian Sage does just what it is advertised to do.

Ask the Red Cross Pharmacy about it. They will tell you that they rigidly guarantee it to cure dandruff, stop falling hair or itching scalp in two weeks, money back. There is no reason whatever why any man or woman should fail to take advantage of the above generous offer. But one thing that has made Parisian Sage so famous is its peculiar power to turn the harsh, unattractive hair that many women possess into huxuriant and radiant hair in a short time. Women of refinement the country over are using it, and it never disappoints.

To Name House Committees-May Be his shortcomings. Forced Through House, However, Because of Home Sentiment. Members Arriving.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 3 .- With the pening of the final session of the sixtyfirst Congress but two days away sen ators and representatives from near and far are arriving in Washintgon to-day on every train.

Following custom, both houses will adjourn soon after their convening at noon on Monday out of respect to the memory of those members who have died during the recess of Congress. Five enators and three representatives have died since the beginning of the summer. The vacancy caused by the death of Senator Daniel of Virginia has been filled by the appointment of ex-Governor Swanson. Senator Parey was chosen to neceed to the seat of the late Senator McLaurin of Mississippi. Governor Sanders of Louisiana was selected to neceed the late Senator McEnery, but he later decided to retain the governor-ship and appointed Judge J. R. Thornton to the senatorship. Some question was raised as to the validity of this procedure and the Louisiana legislature now in special session to settle the glus next week. This was made clear matter. Lafayette Young of Des Moines at a meeting of the commission held has been appointed by Governor Car-rell of Iowa to fill out the unexpired continue through the session with the W. H. Congress on the question of where they stand on a committee on committees have made it clear that most of them are anxious to sidestep the question rather than commit themselves.

Thirty have declared themselves for a ommittee on committees, thus taking from the speaker the power to appoin them. Six have declared themselves flaty opposed to it. Thirty-eight are nonmmittal. This makes a total of sevceptions of an express man who was enty-four answers received. About two found guilty of transporting liquor into thirds of the members have failed to reply to the letters of inquiry.
This, on the whole, shows that the Democrats are disposed to dodge the question. However, it is believed that many of the non-committal members will feel compelled by sentiment in their districts to vote for a committee or ommittees when the issue is forced on them, as Representative Norris and other insurgent Republicans say it will
